5th annual “Local Celebrity Lunch” Raises $6,400 for Donate Life Florida

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (April 25, 2022) – Following a two year COVID-induced hiatus, area “celebrities” were back in their aprons yesterday to serve up a heaping helping of awareness for organ and tissue donation at the 5th annual Local Celebrity Lunch, hosted by the St. Lucie County tax collector’s office. The event also raised $6,400 for Donate Life Florida, a nonprofit organization dedicated to motivating Floridians to register as organ, tissue and eye donors so lives can be saved through donation and transplantation.

Celebrity servers included St. Lucie County Tax Collector, Chris Craft, St. Lucie County Fire Chief Nate Spera, Clerk and Comptroller Michelle Miller, State Representative Dana Trabulsy, St. Lucie County Commissioners Frannie Hutchinson and Sean Mitchell, St. Lucie County School Board Members Debbie Hawley and Troy Ingersoll and Fort Pierce City Commissioner Jeremiah Johnson.

Event sponsors included title sponsor Seacoast Bank, Gehring Group, Grant Street Group, EDB Architects, 8th Avenue Studios, Southern Eagle Distributing, the St. Lucie County Chamber of Commerce, Giordano’s Floral and Chuck’s Seafood, which donated all of the food served at the event.
